

Introduction:

The conversation of revelation continues from the end of chapter 10. We take a deeper dive into the conflict already in motion and will take place as this drama of earthly dominion is played out under God's plan. Clearly, the "great controversy" initiated by the rebellion in heaven is real, fierce, and will only be settled by God Himself. Chapter 11 is the longest of these concluding chapters, second only in length to Chapter 2 in the entire book. It is also considered by many to be the most difficult to read and understand. However, careful, prayerful study reveals that our God simply shares more details regarding things to come and continued assurance through this chapter. Let's carefully review the message of Daniel 11 in this Biblical study of "A Game of Thrones."

¹ “Also in the first year of Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood up to confirm and strengthen him.) ² And now I will tell you the truth: Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. ³ Then a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. ⁴ And when he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken up and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.
