Introduction

Daniel chapters 10 and 11 come to a close with the first four verses of Daniel 12. The prophecy of the long war, the rise of the contemptible ruler, the persecution of the righteous, and the standing up of Michael to bring all things to an end has been shared with God's servant of many years, Daniel. In these closing verses, Daniel is in vision and receives his final instructions, prophetic time prophecies, and blessed assurance through a prophetic promise of his personal deliverance. God also gives Daniel just what we need to stand strong in our current challenges and the coming days. Let's carefully review the message of Daniel 12 in this Biblical study, "When Michael Stands!"

Focus Text

Daniel 12:4 (NKJV)

“But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and from, and knowledge shall increase.”

The Backdrop

... the first three verses of Daniel 12 should be the last three verses of chapter 11. The last verse of Daniel 11 describes the end of the “king of the North” by stating: “Yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.” Daniel 11:45. Daniel 12:1 then opens (with “At that time ...,” i.e., at the time of the end of the “king of the North.”

Kenneth Cox, Daniel Pure and Simple

Daniel 11:42–45 (NKJV)

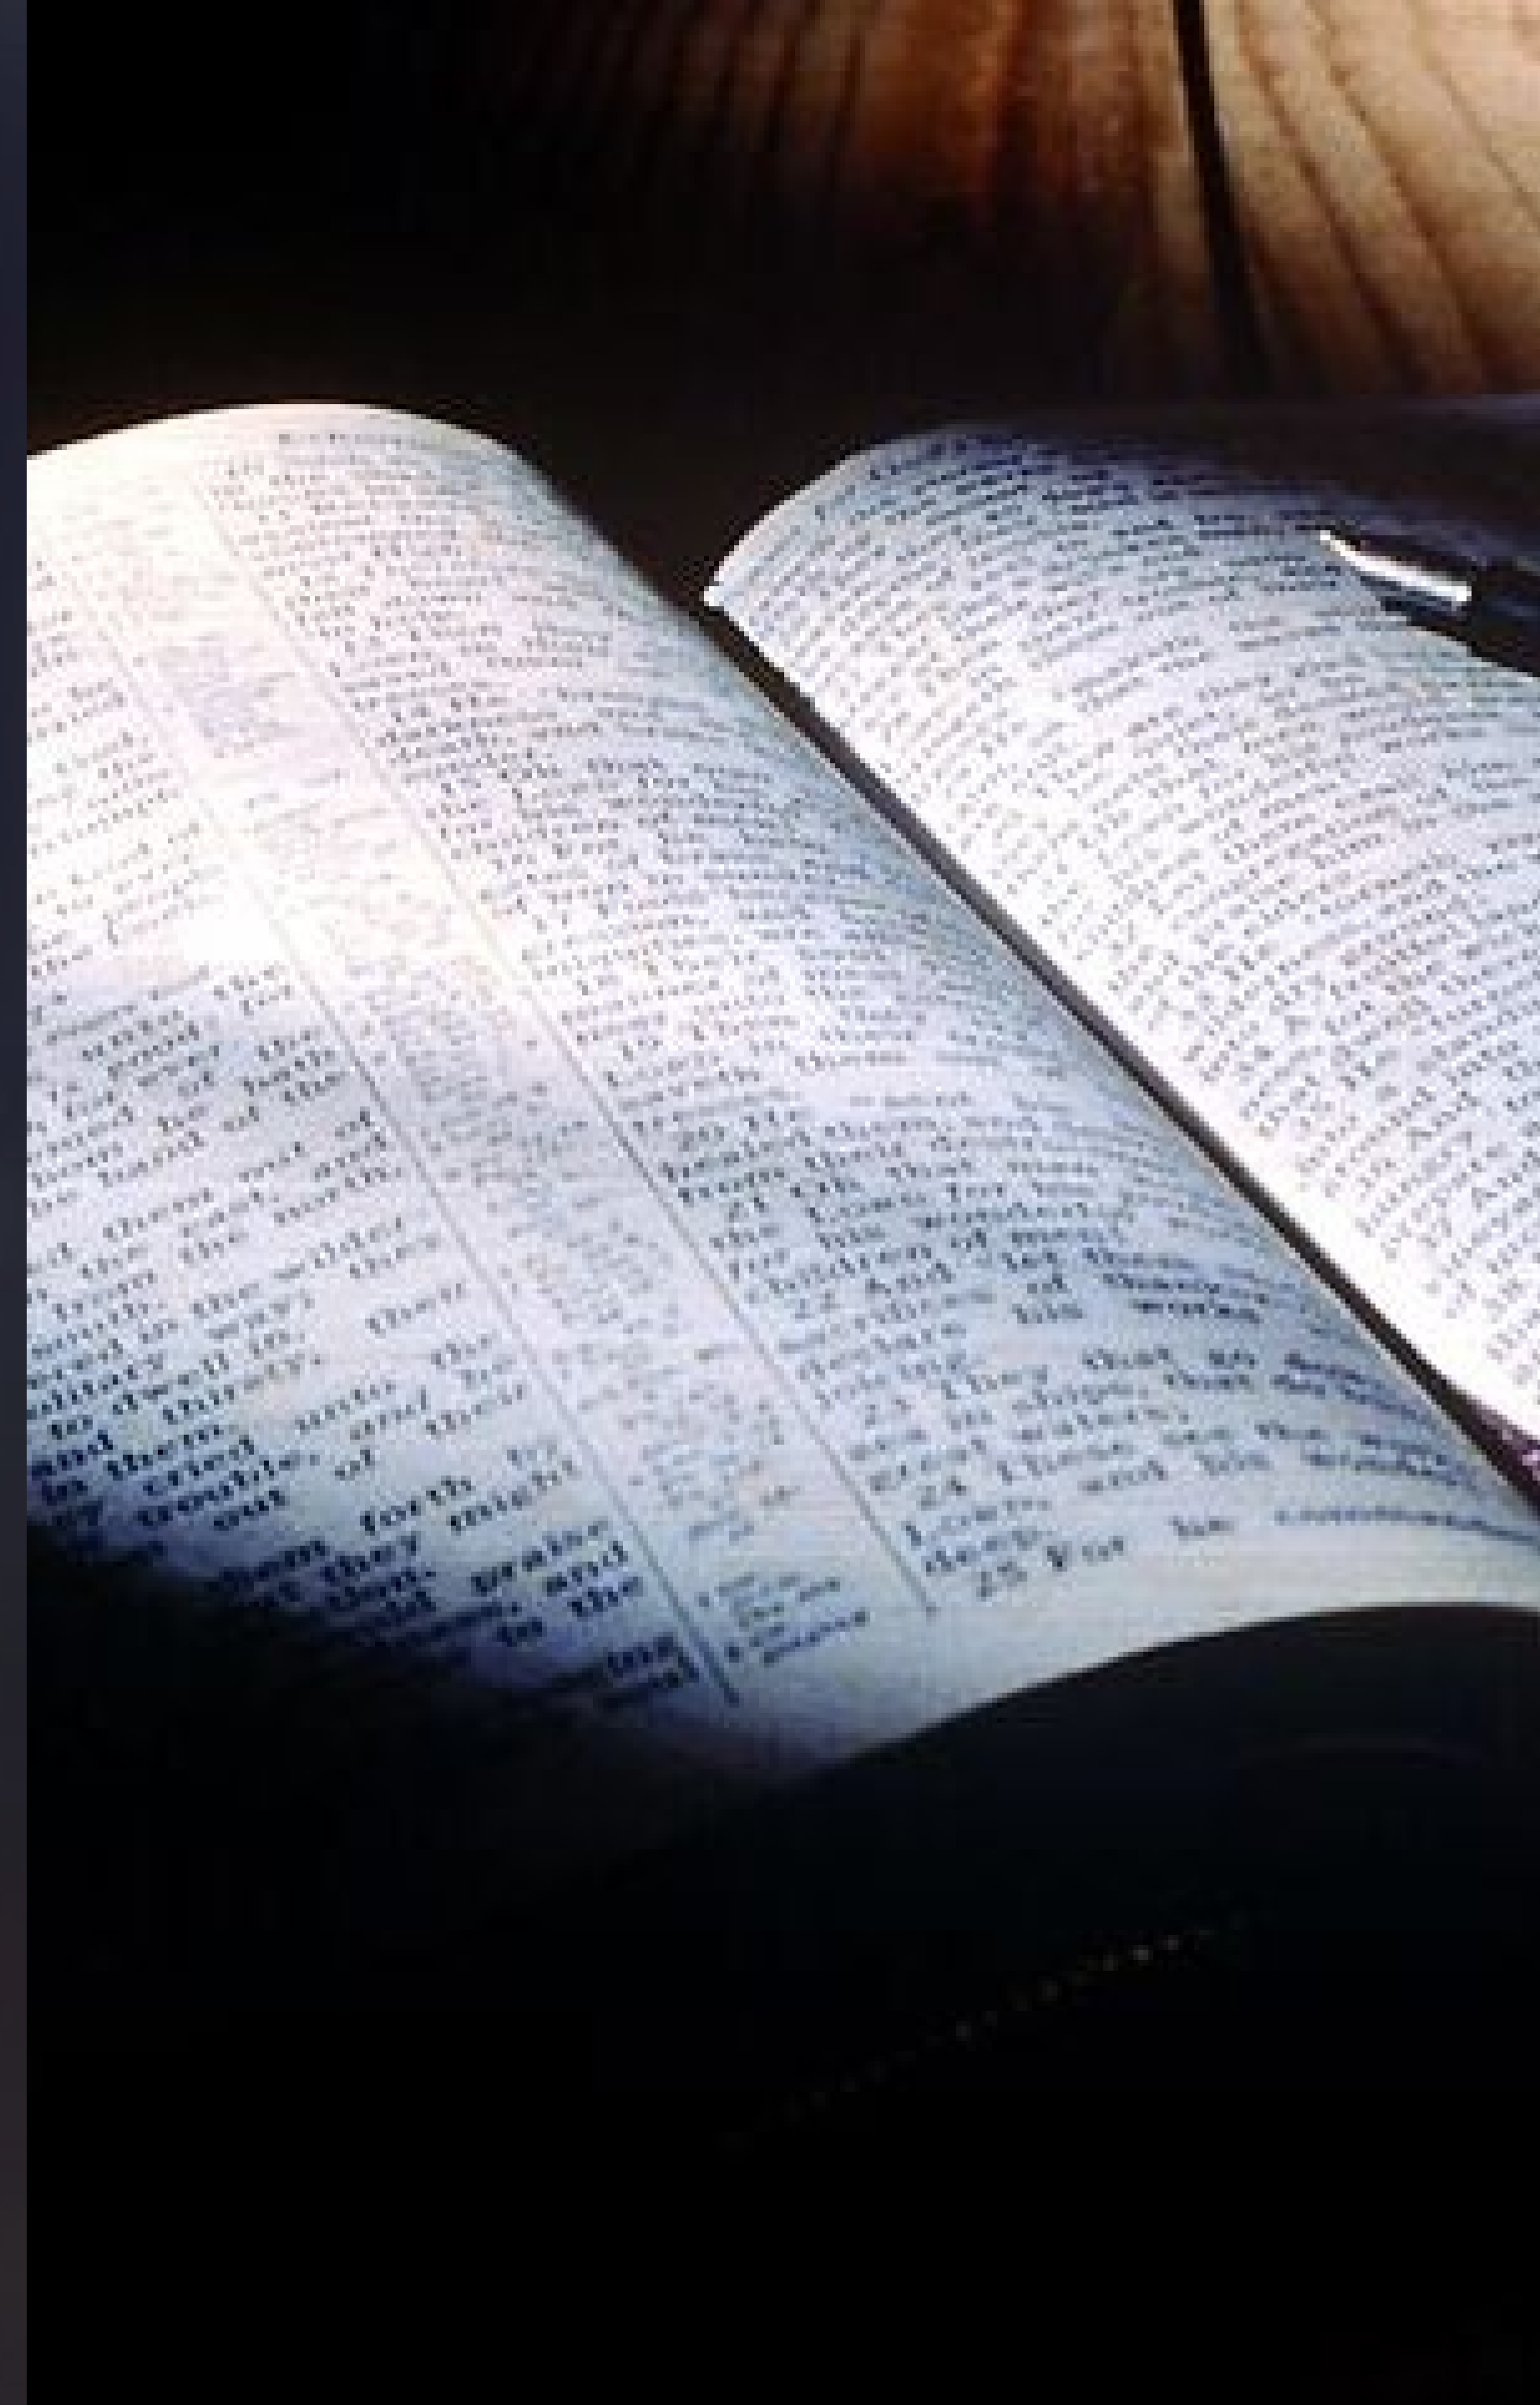

He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>43</sup> He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow at his heels. <sup>44</sup> But news from the east and the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. <sup>45</sup> And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

Daniel 12:1 (NKJV)

“At that time Michael shall stand up, The great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people; And there shall be a time of trouble, Such as never was since there was a nation, Even to that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, Every one who is found written in the book.
